Description

The course leads you from level A1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for languages.

I will guide you step by step through the different objectives and requirements of the A1 level. It is meant for students with English as a native tongue (it has subtitles, translations and documents to print in English)

A1 highlights the first knowledge in German language. It recognizes basic knowledge. It is the most basic level at which a language is used, called the "discovery" stage. At this stage, the learner can interact in a simple way: he/she can speak about him/herself and his/her immediate environment.

The course is taught in English /Hindi and German as much as possible to immerse yourself in the language. This will help you A LOT to improve your listening skills.

In this course, you will find :

- A shared Google doc from the teacher to give u in detail notes and corrections done in the class each day.
- Powerpoint animations with grammar or vocabulary descriptions
- Conjugation lessons with ready-to-use phrases
